

THE INVENTOR

Opher Brayer is an extraordinary individual whose lifetime of work in developing original methodologies to cultivate multi-talented 'genius' in young and old have been lauded by organisations around the world.

A self-made entrepreneur, business mentor, teacher, innovator and former jazz musician, Opher's STAGES educational movement is currently being rolled out to students across the Czech Republic. With a focus on evolving human ecosystems, STAGES aims to end global poverty by transforming entire regions through education, employment and the environment.